

MEMORANDUM FOR: SB/RR

SUBJECT

Report of
: Disagreement in high Soviet Government circles

SOURCE

7: AECASSC WRY/29 (usually reliable source) from a Western citizen who visited the Soviet Union in July of this year (untested but probably reliable source)

Soviet Ukrainian literary critic Ivan Svitlychnyy, who was sent to a corrective labor camp in late 1965 after being accused of copying and disseminating nationalist literature published in the West, and who was later released, told a Western citizen who visited Kiev in late July of this year that he had been informed by an intelligence source that there is severe quarreling going on in the highest echelons of Soviet Government and that some changes are expected "at the very top" in the near future.
